

What Is an Unfair Labor Practice charge?

An Unfair Labor Practice charge or ULP is a formal complaint filed when one party in negotiations acts in a way that violates labor laws, such as failing to bargain in good faith. Filing this charge is a serious step that reflects our commitment to protecting your interests and the integrity of the bargaining process.